Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when,
with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

It is time for us to realize that the teachings of God, through his prophets and his Son Jesus, are worthwhile. On the last Sundays, the Gospel shows us in different ways how Jesus is the Bread of Life, and how we can reach great levels of knowledge in the faith, and how to live the authentic values of the Gospel. The important question, however, is this: What can we learn from God and His teachings in our present age? What does God's Word mean to us? The answer is personal and deserves deep reflection on the part of each one.

In the Eucharist, Jesus gives himself to us as food; It gives us the strength to continue on the path that we still have to travel. Let us learn to receive it with respect and veneration:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. The bread that I will give is my flesh, and I will give it for the life of the world" (John 6:51). Let us ask the Holy Spirit to help us understand the immensity of Jesus' love in giving himself as food. The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in number 1324, does not teach the following: "The Eucharist is the the source and summit of the whole Christian life. The other sacraments, as well as all ecclesial ministries and works of the apostolate, are united to the Eucharist and are ordained to it. The Holy Eucharist, in fact, contains all the spiritual good of the Church, that is, Christ himself, our Passover."

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA:

Ya es tiempo que nos demos cuenta que las enseñanzas de Dios, por medio de sus profetas y de su Hijo Jesús, son las que valen la pena. Los últimos domingos, el Evangelio nos muestra de diferentes maneras cómo Jesús es el Pan de Vida, y cómo podemos alcanzar grandes niveles de conocimiento en la fe y cómo vivir los valores auténticos del Evangelio. Sin embargo, la pregunta importante es la siguiente: ¿Qué podemos aprender de Dios y de sus enseñanzas en la época actual? ¿Qué significa para nosotros la Palabra de Dios? La respuesta es personal y amerita una reflexión profunda de parte de cada uno.

En la Eucaristía, Jesús se nos da como alimento; nos da la fuerza necesaria para continuar en el camino que aún nos queda por recorrer. Aprendamos a recibirla con respeto y veneración:

"Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo. El que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. El pan que yo daré es mi carne, y lo daré para la vida del mundo" (Juan 6:51).

Pidamos al Espíritu Santo, que nos ayude a comprender la inmensidad del amor de Jesús al darse como alimento. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en el numeral 1324, no enseña lo siguiente: "La Eucaristía es la fuente y la cima de toda la vida cristiana. Los demás sacramentos, como también todos los ministerios eclesiales y las obras de apostolado, están unidos a la Eucaristía y a ella se ordenan. La Sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua".
