““God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matter to God.”

Lucas 12: 20-21

“Pero Dios le dijo: “¡Necio! Esta misma noche te reclamarán el alma; las cosas que preparaste, ¿para quién serán?” Así es el que atesora riquezas para sí, y no se enriquece en orden a Dios.”

Luke 12: 20-21

GOSPEL MEDITATION

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

"El hombre ha sido creado para alabar, hacer reverencia y servir a Dios nuestro Señor" (San Ignacio de Loyola, fundador de los Jesuitas, cuya fiesta se celebra el 31 de julio). Alabar y servir a Dios es la fuente de la felicidad en la vida del ser humano, y cuando uno descubre esto en su experiencia de vida, es que descubre la felicidad. La primera lectura nos advierte de los penares de la vida y de lo que pasa al acumular riquezas y poner el corazón en ello. "Después de haber trabajado con inteligencia, sabiduría y habilidad, uno tiene que dejárselo todo a otro que nada ha hecho" (Eclesiastés 2,21).

Cuando estamos contentos porque nos va bien en la vida, por ejemplo: éxito en el trabajo, en el estudio, economía estable, una familia feliz y mucho más, es que nos pasa como el hombre rico del Evangelio, del que nos habla Jesús en su parábola. Está persona no encontraba lugar para su cosecha. Y claro, turbado por la codicia, no pensaba que Dios es el dueño de la vida. El Papa Francisco, en otras palabras, explica lo tercos que somos a veces y como Dios nos espera: "Dios es fiel en su amor, y hasta obstinado. Siempre nos espera con esperanza, incluso cuando nos encerramos en nuestras tristezas, rumiando continuamente los males sufridos y el pasado... Dios, sin embargo, es obstinadamente esperanzado: siempre cree que podemos levantarnos y no se resigna a vernos apagados y sin alegría". ¡Señor, dame generosidad para compartir lo que tengo!

Message from Archdiocese of Miami

“Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.” Hebrews 13:16

It is a beautiful notion to give. In giving we not only make a difference, but we are able to be a part of change. Make your donation to the ABCD today by visiting www.isupportabcd.org.

Anyone who makes a planned gift to the parish—for any amount—automatically becomes a member of the Legacy Society. The Legacy Society is a vehicle for the parish to recognize those who make planned gifts, allow those who give to encourage others, and educate the parish about planned giving options. To learn more please feel free to contact Sabrina Paul-Noel, MPA at spaulnoel@theadom.org or 305-762-1112

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

It is easier to take your eyes off the spiritual to concentrate on the temporal. We tend to look away from heavenly things and direct our attentions to earthly pursuits. We concentrate on the accumulation of things that will soon pass away in this world instead of living a life pleasing to God and hoping of rewards laid up in heaven. Jesus made it clear that His kingdom was not of this world. He shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

“No dejéis de hacer el bien y de compartir lo que tenéis, porque tales sacrificios son agradables a Dios.” (Hebreos 13:16) Es una idea hermosa para dar. Al dar, no solo marcamos la diferencia, sino que podemos ser parte del cambio. Haga su donación a ABCD hoy visitando www.isupportabcd.org.

Cualquier persona que haga una donación planificada a la parroquia, por cualquier cantidad, se convierte automáticamente en miembro de Legacy Society. La Legacy Society es un vehículo para que la parroquia reconozca a aquellos que hacen donaciones planificadas, permita que quienes dan animen a otros y eduque a la parroquia sobre las opciones de donaciones planificadas. Para obtener más información, no dude en comunicarse con Sabrina Paul-Noel, MPA en spaulnoel@theadom.org o 305-762-1112

“Tened cuidado de guardaros de toda codicia, porque aunque uno sea rico, su vida no consiste en posesiones”. (Lucas 12:15)

Es más fácil apartar la vista de lo espiritual para concentrarse en lo temporal. Tendemos a apartar la mirada de las cosas celestiales y dirigimos nuestra atención a las actividades terrenales. Nos concentramos en la acumulación de cosas que pronto pasarán en este mundo en lugar de vivir una vida agradable a Dios y esperar las recompensas guardadas en el cielo. Jesús dejó en claro que Su reino no era de este mundo. Él nos muestra que nuestra verdadera alegría proviene de nuestros dones “invisibles” como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón. La verdadera alegría proviene de vivir un estilo de vida agradecido y generoso; volverse más “centrados en Dios” y menos “egocéntricos”.
